A HEN THAT STRUTS LIKE A ROOSTER IS OFTEN INVITED FOR DINNER

"A Hen That Struts Like A Rooster Is Often Invited For Dinner" - Craig Fellows

Textile Designer based in London. I just came across him. I became instantaneously obsessed with his work and his eye for color and design. Look how gorgeous his textile patterns are in comparison with the garments and fabrics he uses to be shaped in the clothing. Quite lovely.

Incredibly inspiring to say the least.
